ACQUISITION OF CITIGROUP'S AUSTRALIAN CONSUMER BUSINESS

- NAB has agreed to acquire the assets and liabilities of Citigroup's Australian consumer business (the Target Business)
- Supports NAB's strategic ambition to build a leading personal bank with a simpler, more digital customer experience
- The business to be acquired is aligned to our core personal banking proposition with 1.4m customers, $7.9bn of home loans, $4.3bn of unsecured lending receivables and $9.0bn of deposits
- Total purchase consideration to be based on net assets at completion plus a premium of $250m
  - Equity required for NAB of $1.2bn based on incremental RWA<sup>1</sup> and premium
  - Estimated CET1 impact of 32bps on completion. Proforma CET1 as at 31 March 2021 of 11.83%<sup>2</sup> remains above our target CET1 of 10.75% - 11.25%
  - Estimated $220m capital to be released (~5bps) upon achieving A-IRB status (approx. 3 years post completion)
- Estimated pre-tax acquisition and integration costs of $375m, with the majority to be incurred in FY22 and FY23
- Attractive valuation
  - Target Business underlying earnings of ~$330m and cash NPAT of ~$145m for the year to June 2021<sup>3</sup>
  - Represents 8x pro forma NPAT of the Target Business
  - Expected to be marginally Cash EPS and Cash ROE accretive from completion
  - Targeting pre-tax cost synergies of ~$130m p.a. within 3 years
- Subject to regulatory approvals, including APRA, ACCC and Treasurer, targeting completion by March 2022

<sup>1.</sup> Estimated RWA impact of $8.9 billion includes CRWA based on loan balances as at 30 June 2021

<sup>2.</sup> Based on the pro forma CET1 of 12.15% provided with the announcement of the $2.5 billion on-market buy-back on 30 July 2021 less the impact of the Proposed Acquisition (-0.32%)

<sup>3.</sup> Pro forma financial impact of Target Business based on estimated income and operating expenses for Target Business. Assumes credit impairment charges of ~2.7% on unsecured lending portfolio, consistent with average charges observed on NAB unsecured lending portfolio from 2008 to 2020

UNSECURED LENDING IS CORE TO OUR PERSONAL BANKING STRATEGY

• Transaction data will be key to product and service innovation in personal banking. Innovation supports customer acquisition and retention

SCALE AND ACCESS TO CAPABILITY WILL ACCELERATE OUR AMBITION

Increased scale will support innovation in an evolving unsecured lending and payments market

- Increased access to transactional data with ~1.0 million additional unsecured lending customers
- · Scale supports investment in new technology to
  - deliver market leading digital capabilities; and
  - drive product innovation to deliver market leading customer experiences and adapt to changing customer preferences
- Combined business to be the 2nd largest credit card provider in Australia based on outstanding balances

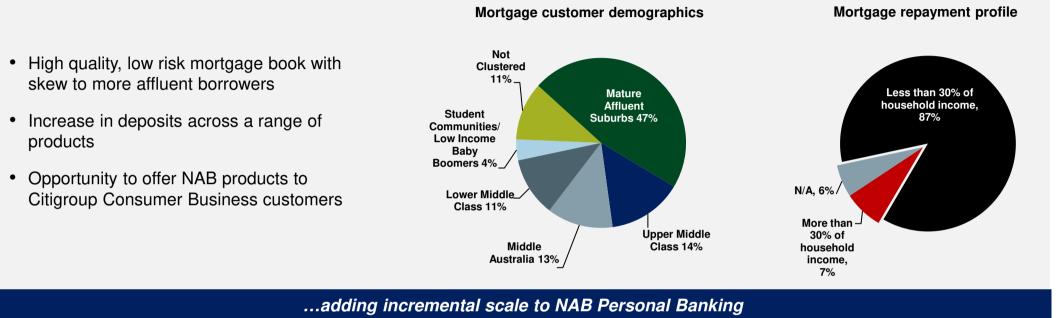

Citigroup management expertise will help drive improved outcomes across the combined unsecured lending business

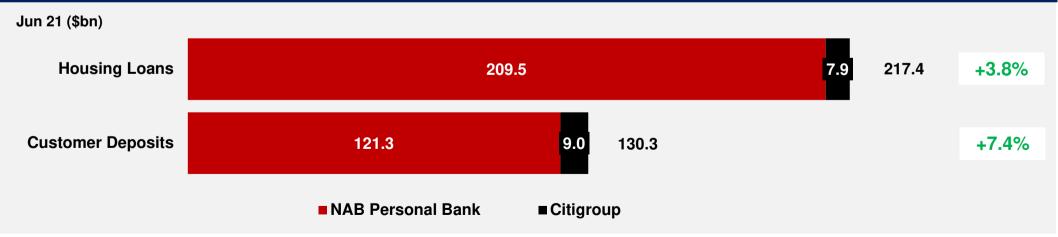

Incremental scale to NAB Personal Bank (Jun 21)

INCREMENTAL SCALE IN MORTGAGES AND DEPOSITS

Migration of Citigroup mortgage and deposit portfolios delivers over 400k customers...

SIGNIFICANT SYNERGY BENEFITS

PRE TAX SYNERGIES AND INTEGRATION COSTS

- Total pre-tax annual cost synergies of ~$130 million p.a. to be achieved over three years
  - Representing ~30% of Citigroup's stand alone cost base<sup>1</sup>
  - Majority of savings driven by combining our unsecured lending businesses
- Additional synergy benefits include potential revenue upside from expanding white label relationships and distribution of NAB products to Citigroup Consumer Business customers
- Estimated pre-tax acquisition costs of $20 million plus integration costs of $355 million with majority incurred in FY22 and FY23<sup>3</sup>
- Integration costs include $165 million to be incurred in FY22 and FY23 to build new unsecured lending platform for combined business
  - Amortisation of capitalised costs for new platform build expected to be recognised over 5 years (through cash opex)
- Other integration costs recognised through non-cash earnings as incurred
